EVERYONE AT YOUR CHURCH IS GIFTED

HELP EACH PERSON TO FIND THEIR MINISTRY

Team Ministry is a spiritual-gifts-based ministry that invites everyone to serve where they fit best, using the unique spiritual gifts God has given them.

Team Ministry focuses on nine team spiritual gifts. While there are other gifts, these nine spiritual gifts are the team or task-oriented gifts for use in daily life and ministry. Here are brief descriptions of these Team Ministry spiritual gifts.

ADMINISTRATION: organizing, administering, promoting, leading

EVANGELISM: passionately leading others to the saving knowledge of Christ

EXHORTATION: motivating others to action, application and purpose

GIVING: releasing material resources to further the work of the Church

MERCY-SHOWING: identifying with and comforting those in need

PROPHECY: boldly and fearlessly proclaiming God's truth

SERVING: providing practical help both physically and spiritually

SHEPHERDING: overseeing, training, feeding, coaching/leading

TEACHING: making clear the truth of God's Word with simplicity & accuracy

One Church, Many Gifts

1 CORINTHIANS 12

8 Reasons Every Christian Should Know Their Spiritual Gifts

1 Knowing your spiritual gifts helps you understand God's will for your life. God gives us spiritual gifts for doing His ministry. Different people are given different gifts to handle different tasks. Understanding your gifts enables you to make decisions about where and how to serve God. What God has called you to do He has gifted you to do, and what He has gifted you to do He has called you to do.

2 Knowing your spiritual gifts helps you know what God has NOT called you to do. Dr. Larry Gilbert who created these Team Ministry Spiritual Gifts resources tells of his journey, "After selling my business, selling my home, moving my wife and three children 300 miles away to prepare to be a pastor, I discovered that God had not called me to be a pastor. I was not gifted for that role." Recognizing what you are not supposed to do enables you to turn down a position that would require a gift you do not have, without worrying you might miss God's calling.

3 Knowing your spiritual gifts relieves you from serving out of "duty." Christians have many reasons for serving in areas that keep them busy but not fulfilled. Many serve out of duty instead of God's calling. When you serve out of duty alone, it is only a matter of time until burnout sets in. When you use the gifts God has given you, you will be able to operate at maximum fulfillment with minimum frustration.

4 Knowing your spiritual gifts helps you understand how the Holy Spirit works through you. "For we are laborers together with God," 1 Corinthians 3:9. Spiritual gifts are God's provision for the Holy Spirit to minister to others through you. Without spiritual gifts people can minister one to another only in the flesh. We must yield ourselves to the Spirit and learn how the Holy Spirit works through us.

5 Knowing your spiritual gifts fills a deep inner need in your life. A hospital is a place where you usually find a staff of people who get more fulfillment out of life than the average person. Why? Because they are willing to wrap their lives in the lives of other people. They are meeting an inner need that God put into the souls of all people. Your spiritual gifts will complement the inner need God placed in you.

6 Knowing your spiritual gifts builds unity among Christians. When you understand the characteristics of spiritual gifts, you see how gifts influence your desires, motivation, and behavior. You will begin to realize why other people do not always see things, or react to situations, the same as you. God's plan is for different gifts to complement each other, not compete with each other.

7 Knowing your spiritual gifts equips you to fulfill God's purpose for your life. Introducing spiritual gifts in Ephesians 4:1 Paul exhorts us to "walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called." In this verse, "vocation" means all aspects of our life: our career, our family life, our ministry, our hobbies, etc. It's our calling in life, the purpose for which God made us.

8 Knowing your spiritual gifts adds to your self-acceptance. Trying to live up to expectations equals failure if these expectations are not in line with what God expects of you. Think of the greatest Christian you know. Now consider this: God has called you to do what this person cannot do. You have been gifted perfectly for your special position on His "team."
